You promised me that job! And you give it to that guy? I have worked for years for that job?

How could you do this?

Daniel, I know your upset, let's put some time in the diary to discuss this in person.

The wheels are already in motion, unfortunately Matthew is better suited.

A conversation like this shouldn't be over email. I have a free morning on the 16th July.

Let's talk then.
