Come and collect your things from the office. I will be back at about 3pm, come then. I am very disappointed this is how it ended, but after what you did in July, its unforgivable.

20 years mate? 20 years! Did that mean nothing to you?
I worked myself to the bone for you. It's because of me you have your nice house and your fancy car. And what do I get? Shoved out. You'll regret what you have done to me, mark my words.
